DETAILED ACTION

Summary

On June 4, 2004, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims 1-17. On October 4, 2004, the Applicant responded by amending claims 1, 3, 5-9, 12-13, and 16, canceling claims 4 and 17, and adding new claims 18-19.

Specification

The objection set forth in the previous Office Action, mailed on June 4, 2004, has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The rejection set forth in the previous Office Action has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, 5-7, 10-12, 14-15, and 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Giovannoli (5,842,178), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

With regard to the amendment, Gionvannoli discloses including at least one response to a request for quotation (RFQ), forwarding at least one RFQ from a sender, wherein the sender comprises one of a first user and a second user acting on behalf of the first user, receiving at least one dealer response to the RFQ, and executing a trade based on a best RFQ (col.5, lines 10 to col.6, line 40). It is inherent that the first user may be a financial executive and that the second user may be a trader, since the buyers and sellers are not limited to one specific type/group that may participate.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8-9, 13, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Giovannoli in view of Hoffman (US 2001/0039529).

Gionvannoli discloses the invention substantially as claimed; however, Gionvannoli does not disclose a system that allows a sender of a RFQ to improve the best response and execute a trade as a principal; price discovery module includes a time management system; the time management system comprising means for setting a first time limit that determines an amount of time for dealers to respond to the requests, means for setting a second time limit that determines an amount of time for a sender of a request to decide whether to accept a dealers response, and means for setting a third time limit that determines an amount of time, after the second time limit has passed, for the sender to inquire whether the response is still valid, or a method for trading taxable and non-taxable securities. Hoffman teaches a system and corresponding method for requesting quotation comprising a system that allows a sender of a RFQ to improve the best response and execute a trade as a principal (p.2, 21-23); a time management system; the time management system comprising means for setting a first time limit that determines an amount of time for dealers to respond to the requests, means for setting a second time limit that determines an amount of time for a sender of a request to decide whether to accept a dealers response, and means for setting a third time limit that determines an amount of time, after the second time limit has passed, for the sender to inquire whether the response is still valid (p.2, 21-23), and a method for trading taxable and non-taxable securities (p.2, 21-23—system and method may be used to trade any type of good or service). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate a system that allows a sender of a RFQ to improve the best response and execute a trade as a principal; price discovery module includes a time management system; the time management system comprising means for setting a first time limit that determines an amount of time for dealers to respond to the requests, means for setting a second time limit that determines an amount of time for a sender of a request to decide whether to accept a dealers response, and means for setting a third time limit that determines an amount of time, after the second time limit has passed, for the sender to inquire whether the response is still valid, and a method for trading taxable and non-taxable securities, as taught by Hoffman into the invention disclosed by Gionvannoli, to demonstrate that the RFQ of Giovannoli may be used in conjunction with securities or any product and to ensure that a sufficient amount of time is given for conducting the transaction until completion.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-3, 5-16, and 18-19 have been considered but are most in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
